Date: 22.07.2026

Sub: Physical Counselling for filling up vacant seats (UG) (Mop-up Round)

This is to notify that a physical counselling will be conducted by Presidency University (PU) for the purpose of the filling of the vacant seats in connection with UG Admission, 2026. This counseling is intended for all the rank holders who satisfy the Minimum Aggregate Score (as laid down in the Information Brochure (UG Admission 2026)).

Candidates who can participate

- Candidates who secured admission into PU and wish to change their Major subject, provided the candidate has a valid GMR in the desired subject
- All those candidates having valid GMR and who also satisfy the Minimum Aggregate Score (as laid down in the Information Brochure (UG Admission 2026)) but could not secure admission are also eligible to apply for the above-mentioned counselling.

During the online reporting process the applicants (who are not admitted into PU presently) will be allowed to apply for a maximum two subjects. However, candidates who are already admitted in PU will retain their present admission and will be allowed to opt for one subject only.

In order to participate in the above-mentioned counselling procedure, interested candidates are requested to report online between 23rd July, 2026 and 26th July, 2026 (till 10 PM). Candidates who report in this round of counselling, will only be considered for subject change / admission into PU, strictly based on GMR after eligibility &/or document verification. Adherence to the schedule published below is mandatory.

If any candidate fails to report, his/her application will not be considered in the Admission Process further. Candidature will be cancelled if any candidate fails to satisfy the eligibility criteria.
