Notification

Ref: PU/FC/645/notice/admission/2024

Date: 29/08/2024

Sub: De-centralised Counselling for filling up vacant seats (UG)

This is to notify that a de-centralised counselling will be held by Presidency University (PU) for the purpose of the filling of the vacant seats in connection with UG Admission, 2024. This counseling is intended for all the PUBDET 2024 rank holders who satisfy the eligibility criteria (as laid down in the Information Brochure (UG Admission 2024))

Candidates who can participate

- Candidates who will secure admission into PU and wish to change their Major subject, provided the candidate has a valid GMR in the desired subject
- All those candidates having valid GMR in the WBJEEB held PUBDET-2024 and who also satisfy the eligibility criteria (as laid down in the Information Brochure (UG Admission 2024)) but could not secure admission by the counselling held by WBJEEB are also eligible to apply for the above-mentioned counselling.

During the reporting process the applicants (who are not admitted into PU presently) will be allowed to apply for a maximum two subjects. However, candidates who are already admitted in PU will retain their present admission and will be allowed to opt for one subject only.

In order to participate in the above-mentioned counselling procedure, interested candidates are requested to report online between 31st August and 1st September, 2024. Candidates who report in this round of counselling, will only be considered for subject change / admission into PU, strictly based on GMR after eligibility &/or document verification. Adherence to the schedule published below is mandatory.

If any candidate fails to report, his/her application will not be considered in the Admission Process further. Candidature will be cancelled if any candidate fails to satisfy the eligibility criteria.
